A Strength-Based Approach to Substance Abuse Prevention

The Zuni Tribal Prevention Program is hosting a FREE 2-Part Training:

Part I – November 14, 2017 9am-5pm (Lunch Provided)

Part II – November 20th & 21st 9am-5pm (Lunch Provided Both Days)

At the Zuni Housing Authority Conference Room

This training was developed to provide foundational skills necessary to implement a strength-based approach to substance abuse prevention in Native Communities. This training provides a framework for communities to use as a guide as they tailor this approach to their community.

Topics in the training include:

- Intro to Strength Based Approach
- Historical Events/Colonization
- Strength Based Change Model
- Resources
- Creating & Sustaining Change

There is limited seating available for this training
